

PARTNERS FOR PARKS, INC

PRIVACY POLICY

Nondisclosure of confidential information:

Through the normal course of its work, Partners for Parks' board and staff may be exposed to confidential information about donors, grant-seekers, grantees and other individuals or organizations. The Partners for Parks' board and staff pledge to keep totally confidential all non-public information of a sensitive nature.

Specifically:

- Partners for Parks does not provide donor contact information to any outside source.
- Partners for Parks protects donors' rights to privacy and anonymity. Those wishing to anonymity need only communicate this request to any Partners for Parks board member.
- Partners for Parks takes every reasonable step and caution to ensure that information technology systems cannot be invaded by unauthorized users.
- Those included on email distribution lists may opt-out at any time by notifying Partners for Parks through a number of identifiable and convenient channels linked to out e-communications channels.

For more information about Partners for Parks or its privacy policies, please contact us.